STONEWALL ADOPTS LIVE STOCK ORDINANCE

After a lively campaign, led by the Stonewall News, that town has at last decreed that all live stock must be taken from the streets and kept within inclosures. The city council took this action at a meeting held Tuesday evening. Friends of a better kept town are highly pleased over it, for there is little chance for shade trees or other ornaments while the town cow has free range on the streets.

LOST PURSE RECOVERED BY AN AD IN NEWS

That it sometimes pays to advertise for lost articles was shown last night by the two boys who picked up a purse lost by Mrs. H. C. Hunter and advertised for in Tuesday's paper. The boys had been seen with the purse and in the ad in Tuesday's paper they were given the chance of a reward for its return or arrest if they failed to return it. Evidently the boys read the ad for that night the game was thrown and Mr. Hunter's purse was found in the morning.

It's reported that Judges Russell of Ardmore and Hatchett of Durant are preparing to enter the race for the supreme bench to succeed Justice Williams. The more entries, the easier it will be for Judge McKeown.

If, as has been suggested, Al Jennings is intending to make the story of his life, now running in the Saturday Evening Post, the opening gun in a race for governor, he is succeeding in getting plenty of publicity. Almost every paper in the state has had some comment to make on it, all of which is a very essential feature of a campaign.

All Bids Were Too High.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 8.—All bids submitted to the board of affairs today for construction of the buildings for the school for the deaf at Sulphur, were rejected by the board because none of the bids came within the appropriation of $160,000. The bids were all referred to an architect who with the board of affairs and the state board of education must eliminate some of the buildings or reduce the cost in other places. The new bids will be asked for. It was the hope of the board of affairs that work could be commenced at once on the buildings as they are badly needed.

FEDERALS MAKE GAINS

MEXICAN REBELS SEEN TO BE LOSING GROUND IN THE NORTH.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Oct. 7.—Without a shot, Federal soldiers this afternoon captured Piedras Negras, Constitutional provisional capital, across the Rio Grande from here. It was that city's second bloodless capture in the present war. Early in the summer it was taken from the Federals without a fight by Venustiano Carranza, the Constitutional leader, who proclaimed it his capital. It is reported that seven Constitutionalists were found in the city and executed this evening.

Only one company of Constitutional soldiers remained in Piedras Negras today. On the hills to the south were the tents of a band of women followers of the Federals, who had preceded their men into the expected battlefield to witness the spectacle. North of the city the International bridge to Eagle Pass ran a solid stream of refugees, mostly Mexicans, all feeling, some in tears, some praying audibly, for fear of wholesale slaughters which wild rumors had said would accompany the downfall of the capital.

United States soldiers received these refugees in squads, marching them off to quarantine camps, where the women and children were given food and shelter, after spending a hungry night in the streets of Piedras Negras. As the last of these refugees was crossing the bridge the Federal advance guard appeared on hilltops two miles south of the Mexican city. The sunlight glinted on machine guns. Twenty cannons were trained on Piedras Negras, shot for action. The single company of Constitutionalists shouldered arms and marched silently away up the river. They were not pursued. A squadron of Federal cavalry then galloped around the city, drove through the Alameda in perfect formation, dismounted at the deserted Constitutional administration building and took possession in almost dead silence.

The tears and nervous terror among the refugees on the American side began to subside when the Federals announced there would be no slaughter. The occupation appeared entirely peaceful and orderly.

The fall of Piedras Negras seems to make the almost complete occupation by Federals of Coahuila, the State over which Carranza was governor, when he announced his revolt against Huerta, and in which is followed during April, May and June last rapidly expanded from a handful to thousands of apparently well disciplined men. His military power and the importance of his capital began to decline last July, when Gov. Carranza left to take command of his men about Torreón. From that point he went westward in to Sonora. What has become of the Constitutional leaders who left Piedras Negras a few days ago, or of the formerly good-sized constitutional army in this section, is not known.

MURRAY IN TOWN

CONGRESSMAN NOT YET DECIDED ON COURSE—WILL TAKE NO PART IN GOVERNOR'S RACE

Congressman Wm. H. Murray was in the city on private business today, but his presence was soon known and he was the center of interest of a large number of citizens, for there is no question about his having a large number of warm friends in Ada.

When asked about his intentions for the coming campaign, Mr. Murray stated that he had not fully determined his course. The House offers an inviting opportunity to do much good, but the Senate also offers a man more power to accomplish things. He is keeping abreast of all other questions but is centering his main energy on securing a settlement of the Indian tribal affairs. He stated that he expects to strain every nerve in the endeavor to have the tribal funds distributed to their rightful owners so that the present generation will get what is coming to it and the Indian freed from leading strings that now retard his progress. Although the full bloods may need some protection, it is Mr. Murray's idea that the others should be freed absolutely and given their money with which to better their condition. The greatest obstacle in the way at present is the opposition coming from those interested in reopening the rolls. As long as there is a great fund to the credit of the Indians this will exist and grow stronger.

"If I accomplish nothing more than secure a settlement of this question, I shall feel satisfied," declared Mr. Murray.

His opposition to Senator Gore is based on their difference on the settlement of the tribal affairs. If he does not make the race himself Mr. Murray makes it plain that he will be found supporting some strong candidate for Gore's place.

In regard to the governor's race next year, he stated that he will take no part in it, either publicly or personally, for or against any candidate. Sometime in the near future he will announce a speaking date in Ada and in a speech will give his views in more detail.

ECHOES FROM COALGATE.

Coalgate Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises. "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Coalgate resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

S. R. Barnes, Coalgate, Okla., says: "For a couple of years I was bothered by sharp pains across my kidneys and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. I had to get up several times at night. I took medicine but nothing benefited me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills. A couple of boxes made a permanent cure. I endorse Doan's Kidney Pills even more highly now than I did when I gave a testimonial before."

JAMES K. HACKETT

SEES HIMSELF ACT

At Special Matinee Witnesses His Performance in "Prisoner of Zenda."

It is granted to but few of us to "see ourselves as others see us," but James K. Hackett enjoyed that experience last Tuesday afternoon when a special matinee performance of The Prisoner of Zenda in moving pictures was given at the Lyceum Theatre. Mr. Hackett had previously seen himself in the pictures at a private exhibition. On Tuesday he was the centre of an admiring group that congratulated him upon the splendid photographs in which he was the central figure.

The films were produced under the direction of Daniel Frohman and Edwin S. Porter and constitute the first of a series of moving picture plays in which prominent stars will re-enact their greatest successes.

The Prisoner of Zenda was first produced in the old Lyceum Theatre on Sept. 4, 1895, with E. H. Sothern in the dual role of Rudolph V., King of Ruritania, and Rudolph Rassendyll. Early in February, 1896, Mr. Hackett, then a young man, was permitted to play the title role.

Mr. Hackett enjoyed a great success in the play and soon became known as a "matinee idol." It is needless to say that Mr. Hackett was one of the most interested spectators at the moving picture reproduction of his early success. Prior to the presentation of the film drama Daniel Frohman came before the screen and expressed his gratification at being able to reintroduce Mr. Hackett to Broadway in the same play in which he featured him seventeen years ago. —New York Sun.

Jesse Items.

Well, well, what about these hot winds. Don't it look just a little shaky With that exception our people are in fine spirits crops all look well and the oats and wheat in the granary.

A great many have planted kafir corn. Geo. Thompson has about 50 acres on his farm besides quite a lot of sorghum.

Prof. Willbanks was with the Jesse singing club last Sunday and you may well know that we did some singing. We may yet succeed in getting the normal class of twenty days instruction to begin next Monday. We did not have the fifth Sunday singing convention with us as we expected on account of the name being changed after it was voted to our place, but we all went with it just the same to Kite and helped to have a jolly good time.

Listen! another wedding in Jesse at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baugh, at the hour of nine Sunday evening, July 6. Mr. Talmage Lowman and Miss Lucile Baugh were happily joined in wedlock in the presence of a large gathering of friends, Rev. Stegall of Pontotoc officiating. The bride was most becomingly attired in white silk crepe de chine and lace, while the groom wore the conventional black.

Miss Lucile was well known by her most splendid work in church and society and loved by all who knew her. The groom a son of our friend T. T. Lowman near Stonewall is a most promising young man. Both parties are well known in Ada, having been students of the E. C. N. They left Monday, with our hearty well wishes for their future home in Osage, Ok., to start their little craft out on the great sea of matrimonial bliss, where Mr. Lowman has a paying position with the oil company.

Mrs. Jarrett and Mr. Jeff Carter's family visited Mr. Pettyjohn's last Sunday.

Carl Stewart of Okmulgee visited his mother's family and friends and took his best girl to Kite to the singing convention.

Our new school board had a meeting Monday and arranged for a good school this year.

The Jesse Rebekah Lodge are to install their new officers Wednesday night.

Mrs. Julia Schenler of Lehigh, special deputy president will be with them and do the work after which ice cream and cake will be served, don't we wish we were Rebekahs.

FIVE PRESENT AT COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

In spite of the extreme heat the meeting of the Commercial Club Thursday evening was a frost, only five being present. However, President M. C. Wilson will take another try at it and has called another meeting for Tuesday evening.

Just at this time the club has some important matters to deal with that demand the earnest attention of all. The road question must be considered. The farmers are expecting the city to make some sort of move and something definite must be done.

Another matter of great importance is the county fair which it is proposed to pull off at Ada this fall. The time is ripe for an enterprise of this kind and in view of the many past successes of Ada in handling any sort of proposition, it is certain that this can likewise be made a great success and that as a result Pontotoc county will receive much benefit.

The matter of insurance rates is to be considered. This question was up at a former meeting and this time it is expected that final action will be taken and some recommendation concerning the purchase of more fire apparatus be made to the city commissioners.

Last, but not least, comes the matter of the clean town contest. With the enthusiastic send off given this movement by the ladies, it is now up to the club to adopt some system of pushing the work.

These questions demand a careful consideration and every member of the club should be present at the meeting Tuesday evening.

Murder Cases Almost Identical.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 11.—More than two weeks have passed since Charles E. Pendell, a wealthy money lender, was found murdered in his office in this city, and the case remains as much of a mystery as it was on the day the mutilated body was discovered. Of one thing, however, the police are thoroughly convinced. They believe that when the person or persons who killed Pendell are found, then the long sought murderers of Joseph Logue in Chicago will be found. Seldom have two crimes committed at points so far apart offered such a case of similarity in every important detail. That the two murders were committed by the same hand appears certain to those who have studied the two cases.

The murder of Joseph H. Logue occurred in Chicago on December 20 last. Logue was a money lender as was Pendell, the Los Angeles victim. Both also dealt in diamonds and jewelry. Both murders were committed in the offices of the victims. Both were committed in the middle of the day, Logue being killed at about the hour of noon and Pendell at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. In each case the last person seen to enter the office was a well-dressed woman. Robbery is supposed to have furnished the motive in each case, though strangely enough the nature and amount of the booty have never been determined definitely either in the Logue or the Pendell case. Both victims were known to be in the habit of carrying considerable sums of money and large amounts of jewelry. The brutality of the murderer was evidenced in each case, both of the victims being shot, slashed and beaten.

The detectives are positive that the two murders were committed by the same skilled professional criminals—a man and a woman. But in neither case did there appear the slightest clue that might lead to the identity of the pair. The murderer or murderers committed their crimes so skillfully and so quietly that persons in adjoining offices heard no sound.

Sequel To Love For Doll

Maternal Instinct Greatly Developed by Teaching Children to Love their Dolls.

The little child's doll is mother to the most romantic fairy. And in the years that pass, the doll fades into the petals of a June rose, to evolve the most wondrous of all transformations.

And now comes a more serious period when the joy of real motherhood should be as tranquil as best effort can provide.

This is accomplished with a wonderful remedy known as Mother's Friend, an external application so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every cord, nerve, muscle and tendon involved.

There will be no pain, none of that nausea or morning sickness, no sensation of distress or strain of expanding muscles. The nerves, too, will be calm, thus making the period one of restful days, of peaceful nights and a source of happiest anticipation.

The young, expectant mother must be carefully watched lest she become absorbed in those mental distresses which illy prepare her for the most important event in her life.

Mother's Friend enables her to avoid all sensation of dread, worry or pain, and thus she is preserved in health and strength to take up the joyful task of motherhood.

You will find Mother's Friend on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Do not fail to use it regularly as directed. Write today to Bradfield Regulator Co., 135 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their most valuable little guide book for expectant mothers.

JACK JOHNSON WILL ### LIVE IN FRANCE

Havre, France, July 11.—Jackson Johnson, negro pugilist, arrived here today on board the Corinthian and immediately on landing announced his determination never to return to the United States. He said he would in the future take up his residence in Paris.

Washington, July 11.—Jack Johnson's announcement that he would never return to the United States caused department of justice officials immediately to consider steps to bring about forfeiture of his personal bond of $30,000 pending in Chicago for his appearance in connection with white slavery indictments upon which he has not yet been tried.

Jack Johnson may not find refuge in France, in the opinion of the state department officials. They say that while probably there is no provision in the extradition treaty with France under which his surrender could be demanded, the French authorities even without a formal appeal from this government may deport Johnson as, like most European countries, France is understood to have laws to prohibit the immigration of a person convicted of crime in his own country.

Where Do You Shop?

Do you shop in a brisk, active store, or in a dull store? Advertising makes bright stores. Failure to advertise goes hand in hand with dullness and stagnation.

Advertising brushes away cobwebs and dust, smartens windows, quickens the intelligence of salesman, and lets in the sunlight.

Advertising makes the merchant think of you—of your wants and needs; makes him anxious to serve you to your liking and advantage.

Advertising keeps stock form having birthdays.

Advertising acquaints you with new things, and so brightens your home, your life, your person.

Advertising keeps a business from growing lazy and stupid. Advertising injects good red blood into the arteries of business, and keeps it healthful and active.

Smile back at the shop which smiles at you. Shake hands with it—keep company with it—your favor will be returned to you tenfold.

From the St. Louis Republic.

Shop where your wants and needs are uppermost in the mind of the merchant. Shop in the store which reflects you, which you dominate. Shop where your money returns to you in better goods, better values, better service.

Shun the shop that is dumb and dark and dreary; keep away from the shop that never speaks to you, never smiles at you, never bothers about you. Reward by your custom the merchant who lives to serve you and who is doing his utmost to build up this community; who takes you into his confidence by means of advertisements in your local news papers.

POSSIBLE CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS

Since Governor Cruce signed the congressional redistricting bill, candidates for congress have been popping up like mushrooms in all the districts and in the Shawnee district which will be hereafter known as the fourth, there will be no dearth of material. The list includes to date Congressman Bill Murray and State Senator Shaw of Johnston county, Hon. J. W. Bolen, District Judge T. D. McKeown, Senator Roddie of Pontotoc county, Senator Chas. F. Barrett, County Attorney Freeling and H. H. Smith of Shawnee, George Crump of Seminole, Col. Roy Hoffman and John J. Davis of Lincoln county with Creek, Okfuskee, Hughes and Coal to hear from. If Bill Murray decides to run in this district his announcement will have a tendency to eliminate a very large number of the possible candidates enumerated above, but enough will remain to make the fight for the nomination in this district an exciting and memorable one.

Other congressional districts will also be hotly contested for and the campaign of 1914 has practically already begun.—Shawnee News-Herald.

HENRY STARR PAROLED

FROM COLORADO PENITENTIARY
Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 8.—Word was received here Tuesday that Henry Starr, once noted Indian Territory outlaw, has been successful in securing his parole from the Colorado penitentiary,
where he was serving an indeterminate sentence for robbing the Amity bank. Starr was liberated from the penitentiary last week and at once went to Holly, Colo., where it is said he will make his home.
"All I want is a chance to make good, and I have friends who have promised that I shall have it," said
Starr as he reached home.
It was thought when he first tried for the parole that Starr would remove to the Indian country that had been his home, but he will probably remain in Colorado. The conditions of his parole will not permit his removal from the state.

On October 13 to 15 we will have on Blind Show. Men, women and children are invited. Shows at 8:00

PAYMENTS ON

LANDS EXTENDED

Some weeks ago the News published the following notice regarding the extension of time for payments on unal-loted lands sold at the auction sales sometime ago, but as several inquiries have come in about it, the notice is reproduced.

September 15, 1913.

Honorable Cato Sells, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, today announced the extension for one year of the deferred payments due between November 1, 1913, and March 1, 1914, on all lands of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Seminole and Creek nations sold to settlers during the years 1910, 1911 and 1912.

This order is made on account of the severe drought now prevailing in Oklahoma, making it impossible for purchasers to make their next annual payment without great hardship.

While largely helpful to the purchasers, it is in no way harmful to the best interest of the Indians since the security is ample, the indebtedness interest-bearing, and there is now more money to their credit than can be distributed among the tribes under existing law before the extended payments become due.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray,
becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications
the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful —all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.
(Adv.)

STATE WINS BIG SUIT

Oklahoma City, Oct. 8.—The greatest victory that any state commission for corporation control has ever scored in litigation with express companies was won on Tuesday (Oct. 7) when the Su-

the express rate order of the Oklahoma Corporation Commission. The case involves approximately $600,000 in excess collections for express, made by the express companies which, under the ruling of the court, will be returnable to the shippers. With the freight plane, but the company itself was of superior talent and as a result the large audience was simply carried to balance the drama perfectly. If the other attractions booked for the sea-rate victory of last fall this case gives back to the public approximately one million dollars collected by railroad and express companies contrary to the orders of the corporation commission.

The express rate order was issued by the commission June 11, 1909. It was appealed to the supreme court,
the companies giving bond to indemnify shippers. The case was remanded to the commission twice for further evidence and the bonds of the companies increased from time to time as the fund in controversy increased. The original order involved a reduction on an average of about 25 per cent in the express rates then in effect. The commission, on rehearing, modified its rates on milk and cream, merchandise and money shipments to the extent that the reduction as last presented to the higher court is approximately 21 per cent.

The decision of the court, written by Justice Williams and concurred in by all the justices, sustains the corporation commission on all contentions including the rate schedule as last determined upon by the commission.
Thus not only do shippers secure a refund on shipments moving between points in this state while this order has been pending on appeal, but secure the reduced rates for the future,
effective at a date to be announced within a few days. The commission has complete reports on all transactions involving the rates in controversy and shippers are not required to file claims.

LIVED CLOSE TO NATURE TWO MONTHS

Boston, Mass., Oct. 8.—Joseph Knowles, the Boston artist, after a two months' fight for existence in the forests of Maine, is speeding back to civilization. Reporters met him on his way home today.

Knowles' actual exit from the woods was made late yesterday afternoon at a point fourteen miles south of Megantic, Quebec, on the Canadian Pacific railroad tracks.

Clad in rudely dressed skins of black bear and deer and carrying in a pack on his back a fire machine and other tools he fashioned to aid him in living as a primitive man, Knowles looked like a cave dweller.

Thus ended a test of hardihood and endurance, of skill in conquering a hostile environment; of woodcraft that rose superior to the mightiest of handicaps.

Relics on Hands Alone.
On the 4th day of August Knowles plunged into the forests near Spencer lake in Somerset county, Maine. He was naked. He had no weapons, no tools or implements of any kind, no food. He promised to come out of the woods on the 4th day of October fully clad and in good health and physical condition. He has kept this promise in every detail.

Knowles is in good physical condition, despite the fact that his first week in the forest entailed a test of endurance that was completely unforeseen and equally unnecessary. Fearing that the game warden of Somerset county would seek him out in the forest fair and bring his struggles to naught by arresting him for a breach of the game laws, he left his domain near Spencer lake and struck out across the untracked wilderness, seventy miles, for the boundary mountains of Canada, over-looking Lake Megantic. He traversed seventy miles of the wild and most inhospitable country.

Tanned Like Indian.
He lost thirty pounds of weight in the two months, dropping from 204 pounds to 174. His appearance clearly tells the tale of the hardships he has undergone. From head to heel he is scratched and bruised by the briars and underbrush in which he has lived for sixty days. He is tanned like an Indian, almost black.

Ove this tanned neck and arms was a black bear skin, cleverly fastened with thongs of deer skin. His trousers were of deer skin—made Indian fashion, with the hair inside. His feet were encased in moccasins of buckskin, sewed with sinew. He wore no hat, no sleeves, no underwear.

On his back as a knapsack of woven lining bark. It was filled with trophies from the forest. Slung over his arm were his bows and arrows. Sheathed in buckskin, a crude knife of born hung from his belt.

When he reached Megantic Knowles got a big reception. He went to a hotel. The first thing he did was to remove his bearskin covering. Then he sought the bed.

"A bed, a real bed! Let's see how it feels!" and he threw himself full length upon the mattress.

"How are you feeling?" asked a reporter.

"Never felt finer in my life. Say, is there a cigarette around here?" he asked quickly, and in a moment Knowles, stretched out and comfortable, stripped to the waist, was literally devouring the first smoke for many weeks.

MRS REUTER CONTINUES FIGHT FOR LIBERTY
Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 7.—Attorneys for Mrs. Laura M. Reuter, under life sentence for alleged complicity in the murder of her husband, Charles T. Reuter, are prepared to make a hard effort to keep the woman out of prison. Tomorrow Judge Hudson, who presided at her trial in Bartlesville, will pass sentence upon her here, following which a motion for a new trial will be made. In the event this motion is overruled, the Court will be asked to allow her to remain at liberty on bond, pending an appeal. The bondsmen, who have stood by the woman since her arrest eighteen months ago, have announced they will again sign her bond for as much as $100,000 if necessary.

Irrespective of the division of opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the woman, as much sympathy for her is felt owing to her two little children, Johnny, aged 5, and Marcella, aged 3. Her children were with her at Bartlesville when the jury rendered the verdict and begged not to be separated from their mother.

Judge Hudson is allowing Mrs. Reuter to remain at liberty on her old bond pending sentence.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS
If Your Back Hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.
When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.
Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Helen Keller Refused a $5,000 Endowment.
The other day Helen Keller visited Andrew Carnegie, and, as a pleasant surprise, he proposed to settle upon the blind and deaf girl an income of $5,000 a year for life. She refused it promptly. Mr. Carnegie explained that it would be a pleasure for him to feel that he could have a share in her future by providing enough to leave her free to utilize her talents without financial worries. She thanked him, grateful for his thoughtfulness but said:
"I feel that I am able now to provide for myself, and I want to make my own little place in the world. I do not want to feel dependent on anyone. I want to give back to the world some service for all that has been done for me and to feel that it is my own contribution."
Insisting that she accept the endowment, Mr. Carnegie asked why she should refuse his tender when she had accepted Mr. Rogers' aid in her college education. That was different, she explained, as her family had been unable to meet the heavy expenses of her education, but now that she was educated and thoroughly capable of self-support, she could not accept favors from anyone.
A widely known educator, in relating this incident a few days ago, said it touched and thrilled him more than anything he had heard for years—"this afflicted girl, appreciating the generous spirit of Mr. Carnegie, firmly refusing to accept an endowment that famous men have not rejected. 'I regard it,' he said, 'as one of the finest examples of the self-reliant spirit I have ever known.'—The Baltimore Sun.
